

AMC Exhibitions is a full service exhibition stand contractor based south of Cambridge. We specialise in the design and construction of custom-built exhibition stands and worldwide event logistics.

Job title: Exhibit Designer/Project Manager

Job description: This is a career opportunity in a small but rapidly expanding business for someone keen to get involved in many aspects of exhibition stand design, construction and project management .

The role: As an important member of our design and project management team, you will work on creating and subsequently delivering a variety of exhibition projects with several of our key clients. This role will include developing creative solutions for design briefs, liaising with clients, event organisers and suppliers, managing budgets and schedules, and acting as a link between project management and production.

Who are you?

- You should have the ability to interpret a brief, generate creative design ideas and follow this through with strong structural understanding of the concept for construction purposes
- You must have some knowledge of the exhibition stand construction industry, and be able to use this knowledge to be able to contribute positively to the projects you are working on.
- You must be supremely organised and precise in all aspects of your work.
- You must be comfortable working directly with clients, often under pressure. You should be able to demonstrate that you are able to build long term relationships with clients.
- You must be self-motivated and disciplined, and share our ethos of superior levels of customer service.

Additional:

- You must be experienced at using industry standard CAD software; Vectorworks and C4D an advantage although training can be given for the right candidate.
- You must live within easy commutable distance of our Cambridge office.
- You must be able to travel throughout the UK and Europe, often at weekends and outside normal business hours.
- A full UK driving licence is required.

How to apply

Salary will be competitive and commensurate with your experience. Please email your CV, portfolio of your work and an indication of your salary expectations to info@AMCexhibitions.co.uk
